PENSION SURVEILLANCE: CAREER CHANGE DETECTED

DID YOU KNOW?

The average person now has around 11 jobs during their working life.

Every time you join a new employer, you could be enrolled into a new workplace pension. If you've changed jobs or careers over the years, it's easy to lose track of where they're all held.

DID YOU KNOW?

Over 3.3 million pension pots have been lost or forgotten in the UK.

Moving home is one of the main reasons people lose touch with their pensions. If your provider doesn't have your latest address, important updates could end up at your old one.

COULD YOU HAVE A PENSION WAITING TO BE FOUND?

If you've moved house over the years, now is the perfect time to check whether there's a missing pension with your name on it.
